[Librarian, Metropolitan Museum of Art, NYC]

1918-1931

August 13th, 1916.

Mr. William Clifford, Librarian,
Metropolitan Museum of Art,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Clifford:-

We are recently in receipt of a letter from Dr. George F. Hill, of the British Museum, asking whether an illustrated catalogue of the Bardini sale appeared and requesting that one be sent him if procurable.

The American Art Association inform me that the edition is exhausted. I am wondering whether you may have accumulated a duplicate copy of the de luxe edition which you would be willing to send to Dr. Hill. I am emboldened to make this request because of Dr. Hill's strong interest in renaissance medals, of which there were a number in the Bardini sale. You may remember that the Metropolitan Museum purchased heavily of these.

Perhaps Mr. Breck might care to consider sending prints of his registration photographs for Dr. Hill's use in case the de luxe catalogue is not available. In any event this seemed a promising point of contact and I have ventured to make this suggestion in the hope that it may lead to the increase of a cordial feeling toward the Metropolitan Museum, which I do not doubt already exists on the part of Dr. Hill.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

William Clifford, Esq., Librarian,
Metropolitan Museum of Art,

Dear Mr. Clifford:-

I note in the Museum's Annual Report that you state you have been able to secure some of the German periodicals through the American Library Association. If you would kindly call me up and tell me how this is done I would greatly appreciate it.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary and Librarian.

My dear Mr. Noe:-

Yours of the 25th ult., together with ten photographs of the work of Mrs. Sheridan received, and for which will you please accept my thanks.

I am pleased to know that the package of catalogues reached you.

Yours very truly,

William Clifford, Esq., Librarian,

New York.

Dear Mr. Clifford:

Recently I secured the volumes described in the following notation:

Cat. No. 510. 1 Travaux de la section numismatique et archéologique du Musée Nat. de Transylvanie à Kolozsvar (Klausenburg) etc. Années 2-7. Kolozsvar 1911-1916. h/cloth.

These were acquired under the impression obtained from the title that they contained material of a numismatic nature. This however, proves not to be the case. They are almost exclusively archaeological. If the Metropolitan Museum is without the set, would you care to take them off our hands at the cost price, 80 Swiss Francs? It is an unusual set, but as the amount involved is not large, I feel you might care to entertain this suggestion.

With cordial regards.

Yours very truly,

Secretary and Librarian.

Dear Mr. Clifford:

Your letter of the 29th has been received. Yes, I have made doubly sure that the Metropolitan Museum Library will receive future monographs. I am at a loss to explain our failure to send these previous ones.

I had a nice note from Mr. Adams' grandson saying that there was reason to hope for his recovery.
